The Taming Of The Shrew

In 16th Century Padua, Baptista's daughter Bianca wishes to marry but her father insists that her older sister, the sharp tongued and rebellious Katharine must be married first. Petruchio, a gentleman from Verona, journeys to Padua in search of a wealthy wife. There, he encounters the fiery Katharine who leads him on a merry chase as he attempts to circumvent her efforts to avoid marriage. When the embattled couple return to Padua, Kate helps Petruchio win a wager that his is the most obedient of wives but in reality, the wily Kate has found a more effective way to dominate her mate.

"Funny and poignant perfect for a warm summer's evening !"

"Starting in 2008, the Garden Players' productions have become a much-anticipated annual event in the area, so it was with great excitement that I looked forward to their latest performance. While the setting was stunning and a star in itself, the cast really shone."
